Nancy on Pick-A-Box

Nancy on TV for Pick-A-Box TV show. She went on to win a trip for two anywhere in Australia. 1959.

Nancy on Pick-A-Box

● "YOU'VE WON a trip for two anywhere in Australia," yells Bob Dyer to Mrs. Nancy Clarke of Kew. Mrs. Clarke is a mother of 10 children.

accused by unsportsmanlike contestants of asking "too hard" questions.

"I've never had anything like that happen on any of my shows," said Bob. "All my contestants have been wonderful and that goes for the audiences, too."

Bob is not only a quiz compere; he is also a good comedian. Recently he appeared on "In Melbourne Tonight" in a comedy skit with Graham Kennedy. Dyer's timing and wit made it one of the funniest routines ever seen on "IMT."

He gets big laughs when he talks to the studio audience before each "Pick A Box" show.

During one of these "warm-ups" he asked a pretty little blonde teenager to come in front of the audience to help him with a "magician's trick."

Dyer held up a long black silk scarf to the audience and announced seriously that he had the power to change the color of the scarf from black to red.

He asked Dolly Dyer to place the black scarf down the little blonde's modestly plunging neckline.

"Now," said Bob solemnly, "with my magic powers I will turn the scarf from black to red—Dolly, pull out the scarf!"

The audience was hushed, the little blonde gave Dolly a suspicious glance, then Dolly whipped out the scarf from the front of the girl's dress—and the audience howled laughing.

The scarf hadn't changed color but attached to it was a brassiere!

The teenager blushed, but then she laughed, almost as much as the people in the audience.

Dyer can do anything to people and get away with it. He's thrown pies in faces and dunked people with water and mud.

And never has anyone complained. No wonder Dyer is sincere when he says that his studio audiences are "wonderful."

"The people out there are your
