I'd especially like to thank my brother Lowen for spending many hours sorting out the Albums with Nancy and putting the concept into my head. Also Aunty Betty, Lexie, Dad and my brothers for helping me put names to faces and background information.

Visiting Grand mother and Aunt

Calvert with his aunt Anne, his son Philip, his mother Laura and his son Lowen. Taken at Laura's house in Finch Street, Malvern. Dad says his Aunt Anne was his mothers older sister, who was married to Bill Swift. They didn't have any children. Bill Swift was the manager of the Palais Du Dance prior going to Sydney. He was a returned soldier from WW1 and Dad says he was a "wonderful man" and Anne was Dad's favourite Aunt.

DEATH OF MR. CLEM HARDY

MR. Clement Victor Hardy, of Wavell Heights, who died recently aged 53, was born in Casterton, Victoria, and was educated at the Xavier College, Kew, Melbourne.

During World War II he served as a squadron leader in the RAAF, mostly in the Middle East. Taking up residence in Brisbane after the war as a pharmacist he operated a chemical company.

Mr. Hardy was a keen worker for the Government grant for Catholic schools when the agitation began some years ago. Latterly he had been engaged in real estate business, but owing to a heart condition had to curtail his activities.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sheila Hardy, and one daughter, Gillian.

The funeral moved from St. Paschal's Church, Wavell Heights, after Requiem Mass celebrated by Father B. Wilson, for the Anzac Memorial Pinaroo Cemetery. A Requiem Mass was also offered for the repose of Mr. Hardy's soul at his old school, the Jesuit Xavier College, Kew.
